WHY not IMPROVE MINOT?

Air Force Continuous Process Improvement (CPI)

★ What is AF CPI?

★ CPI increases operational capabilities while reducing associated costs by applying proven techniques to all processes associated with fulfilling the AF mission.

★ What is the goal of AF CPI?

To eliminate waste while maximizing customer value.

★ How does AF CPI accomplish this goal?

★ By using widely accepted process improvement methodologies including Lean, Six Sigma, Theory of Constraints, and Business Process Reengineering.

How do I get started applying CPI principles?

Attend a Lean Six Sigma(LSS) Facilitator Techniques class (offered monthly) conducted by the 5th Force Support Squadron Manpower Office at the Education Center.

How do I sign-up for CPI Green Belt Facilitator class?
