

Air Force Family Child Care Expanded Child Care (AF FCC ECC) Program Military Spouse Appointment Child Care (MSAC)

Effective immediately, the Air Force is launching the AF FCC ECC Military Spouse Appointment Child Care (MSAC). MSAC is designed to provide child care for spouses to attend approved appointments related to key aspects of military life. MSAC fills an hourly child care need and is available at all Air Force led Active Duty locations with an active FCC Program.

Eligibility requirements:

- Member of the Military Service
- Active Duty or Reserve/Guard in activated status
- Sponsor must be at work, on directed crew rest, or must attend the appointment with the spouse
- No other adult in the household available to provide care
- Spouse must be attending an approved appointment

Examples of approved appointments are:

- Medical appointments
- Classes offered by Airmen and Family Readiness Centers, Chaplain, Family Advocacy, and Medical Agencies
- Employment opportunities
- Job interviews
- Initial job training/new employee orientation

Note: MSAC is dependent on the availability of funding and installation associated providers.

Note: Installation FCC Personnel must run all requests, which do not fall under the above three scenarios, through AFSVC/SVPYC for a determination.

Note: Volunteer opportunities are not an approved appointment.

Contact the FCC Office at 723-6662 for more information.
